A reading of the poem by Robert W. Service (Jan. 16, 1874 - Sept. 11, 1958).

Most people reading this poem treat it as lightweight fare, a funny parody of a horror story. Service probably intended it that way.

But for my own amusement (more)

FYI

Linden Lab is temporarily postponing the release of 1.9.1. They will continue to release updated versions of 1.9.1 on the preview grid for testing. They will still be bringing the grid down for some hardware and server side code upgrades. These changes will occur between tomorrow from 6am to noon SLT.

0 Comments Published by Lorelei October 27th, 2006 in General

Thanks again to Talis for second prize in the Library Mashup competition! Several Second Lifers were on hand at the Internet Librarian conference this week in Monterey California to receive the award. Prize money was used to purchase several new buildings and furniture for them.

On Sunday, October 29 at 8 am sl there will be an Info Island orientation and tour for added that ALS is one of the innovative organizations, technically speaking, and their philosophy is to mine new technologies as the gospel of library usage. Innovation equals risk, innovation equals growth," she stated.

Bell, the ALS's director of operations, read about SL in the blog of a librarian who was already a regular. She created an account, logged in with her avatar, Lorelei Junot, and discovered a population of almost 200,000. She found that SL had a few libraries, such as Wandering Yaffle's library, but thought that virtual library services could be expanded.

"Since there is web programming through OPAL, why not offer that in SL?" she said.

Librarians from all over the country are gathering in SL to assist in setting up the virtual library. In fact, Pope expected criticism from many library blogs, but instead has found those in the field to be immensely excited about the possibilities afforded by SL.

Bell concurred, saying, "The response has been enthusiastic. People are volunteering and doing a ALS, which is based in East Peoria, Ill., will team up with Online Programming for All Libraries (OPAL) and utilize the programs, currently offered online to librarians and libraries, within SL. The two entities eventually hope to offer a plethora of library services.

In a telephone interview, Kitty Pope, executive director for the ALS, said the goal of their programs within SL is to reach people who might not otherwise go to a library. In giving background information about the ALS, Pope said the organization

WORRY TANK

What if it doesn't work?

What if it all blows up in our

What if somebody sees?

What happens if it works... all too well?

What happens ten years down the line?

THINK WHAT?

Tags

A tag is simply a word you use to describe a bookmark. Unlike folders, you make up tags when you need them and you can use as many as you like. The result is a better way to organize your bookmarks and a great way to discover interesting things on the Web.

Don't roll over and play dead

We librarians must learn that when we study something to death, Death was not our original goal.
